Honors work in the Judith Herb College of Arts, Social Sciences and Education is available to academically talented and highly motivated students. Students may pursue Departmental Honors only, offered by individual departments within the college, or they may pursue College Honors, which is offered in conjunction with the Jesup Scott Honors College (<https://catalog.utoledo.edu/undergraduate/jesup-scott-honors/>) and requires students to complete both Departmental Honors and the full JSHC requirements.

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS IN JUDITH HERB COLLEGE OF ARTS, SOCIAL SCIENCES AND EDUCATION

All departments in the Judith Herb College of Arts, Social Sciences and Education offer Departmental Honors, which requires the successful completion of an honors thesis, creative activity, or original research project in the student's major that is supervised by a faculty member in that department. Each Judith Herb College of Arts, Social Sciences and Education department sets its own specific requirements for Departmental Honors, and those requirements are described under the departmental entries in this catalog. Students who meet the criteria for Departmental Honors in their major can pursue Departmental Honors without being enrolled in the Jesup Scott Honors College.

STUDENT SELECTION AND ADMISSION FOR THE JESUP SCOTT HONORS COLLEGE

Students majoring within the Judith Herb College of Arts, Social Sciences and Education may apply to the Jesup Scott Honors College in order to receive College Honors. Students entering directly from high school are admitted based on a review of application materials, which include a high school transcript, references, an essay, and an extracurricular resume. Students with a high school GPA of 3.75 or higher are encouraged to apply. Highly motivated students with a minimum high school GPA of 3.5 also are considered for admission to the program.

Currently enrolled University of Toledo students and transfer students may apply for admission to the College Honors Program if they have completed at least 15, but not more than 60, graded semester hours of college work, and earned a minimum GPA of 3.3 (4.0 scale).

Students are admitted to the College Honors program on a space-available basis. For further details on the Jesup Scott Honors College, please see: <http://www.utoledo.edu/honors/>.
