

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGIOUS STUDIES

John Sarnecki, Department Chair

Philosophy AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

Philosophy at the University of Toledo is historically oriented, pluralistic department with an outstanding faculty and vibrant graduate program. Our undergraduate program exposes students from all majors to the richness of philosophical thought and the importance of critical thinking, and it gives its majors a deep and broad education in diverse philosophical traditions.

Religious Studies at the University of Toledo

The Religious Studies Program at the University of Toledo offers undergraduates the opportunity to explore worldwide expressions of religion in an interdisciplinary, non-confessional context. Students will explore the robust traditions of religious practice, ethics, social institutions, sacred texts, rituals, material objects, and the lived experiences that accompany them. We offer both an undergraduate major and minor. Students can opt to focus their studies in the major in focal area such as Jewish Studies, Christian Studies, Islamic Studies, Interreligious Studies or other areas they design in conjunction with a faculty advisor. We work hard to see that all our majors and minors have a course of study that reflects their career goals and interests so they can flourish professionally and personally.
